Summary of reasons for decision:

The image depicts a partially naked female engaged in solo sexual activity. The Classification Office has considered whether the female subject is a young person. There is not enough information in the image to determine the age of the female. While there are aspects of her appearance that are youthful, she could easily be a young adult. As such she cannot unequivocally be said to be a young person. However, the unrestricted availability of the image is still likely to be injurious to the public good. There is a common social consensus across many countries that explicit sexual material should be limited to adults because of the potential for harm to developing sexual attitudes and behaviours of young people from premature exposure to such material. The image is therefore restricted to adults. This classification interferes with the right to freedom of expression as set out in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990 but is reasonable and justified in order to prevent injury to the public good.
